Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of specialist, technical senior. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for specialist, technical senior

- Designs and delivers demonstrations of software to business and technical stakeholders
- Creates and delivers presentations with guidance as directed
- Researches and identifies standards and best practices as appropriate for discipline
- Performs the role of an Automation / Manual Test engineer
- Performs a role of tester by execution of test cases automated/manual
- Analyzing & understanding assigned requirements to develop appropriate test protocols
- Enhance the test framework as appropriate to ensure coverage of new product functionality
- Maintain the Test Lab by automating the product installation, test setup , software related maintenance
- Reporting the test automation status esp
- Pro-actively co-ordinate and collaborate with different stake holders for different stages of development life cycle of the project

Qualifications for specialist, technical senior

- Fluently and professionally communicate in written and spoken English
- You are expected to understand typical web deployment architecture components and how your features interact with them [DB / Web Server /

- Hands on experience with Bamboo, Maven, Subversion and Atlassian tools such as JIRA is desired
- Must be able to thrive in a fast-paced, high stress environment
- Ability to work independently and adapt quickly with a positive attitude
- JBoss 6.X+, Weblogic 12c+, Hibernate 3.x+, templating engines (Velocity/Freemarker), and Oracle database (custom PLSQL, database design/monitoring/query performance tuning