

Example of Speech Pathologist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for a speech pathologist. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for speech pathologist

- Establishes appropriate and reasonable interdisciplinary plans of care, heeding physical, mental, cultural, developmental, social, linguistic, and economic factors and preferences
- Designs and revises plans of care and goals
- Provides written and/or verbal reports to physicians
- Provides instruction, direction and supervision to new employees
- Participates in related activities such as patient care committees, case conferences, personnel orientations, community education projects and in-service education
- Demonstrates flexibility to meet unit and hospital needs
- Demonstrates interest in personal and professional growth
- Performs other job related duties as assigned by the Director, Outpatient Services
- Administer research based treatment procedures for children with speech sounds disorders
- Conduct assessments of school-aged children with speech sound disorders

Qualifications for speech pathologist

- Pediatric feeding experience is preferred
- Recognised Degree/ Diploma in Speech Pathology
- Eligibility for membership to Speech Pathology Australia
- Current driver's licence and a willingness to drive

- Master's degree in Speech-Language Pathology or its equivalent from an ASHA-accredited university is required