

Example of Speech Pathologist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of speech pathologist. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for speech pathologist

- Serves as a member of the child study committee for each school
- Maintains positive relationships with each student
- Participates in professional development activities as necessary to maintain licensure
- Performs instruction in the classroom commensurate with the school's stated philosophy, objectives and purposes
- Enhances speech/language proficiency and communication effectiveness
- Creating reports and plans of care following the minimum information required by CMS/private payers, ASHA and the Florida Department of Health Board of Speech-Language Pathology
- Integrate and synthesize test results, behavioral observation gained from all sources to develop a diagnostic impression and make proper recommendations
- Proficiency and high comfort level using iPads and new technologies intermediate skill level in Microsoft Outlook, Word, Excel and Power Point
- The Speech-Language Pathologist supports the mission, vision, values and objectives of Saint John's Health Center
- Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, discharge planning, performing patient evaluations, establishing and implementing a plan of care, monitoring patient's progress

Qualifications for speech pathologist

- Master's Degree in Speech/Language Pathology from an accredited program in Speech/Language Pathology
- Able to demonstrate the knowledge and skill necessary to provide care based on physical, psycho/social, educational, safety and related criteria, appropriate to the age of the patients serviced in his/her assigned service area as related to the principle duties and responsibilities of the position
- Current state of Utah Speech Pathologist license
- Hearing/listening, manual dexterity, seeing, sitting, speaking, squatting/kneeling, standing, and walking
- Experience working specifically with school-aged children with speech and language disorders required