

Example of Speech Therapist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for a speech therapist. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for speech therapist

- Performs a comprehensive assessment of patient condition as required
- Provides quality patient treatment according to speech and language pathology standards of care
- Uses individual speech and language pathology plans of care to reflect current resident/client needs and includes outcome expectations
- Shares information regarding the patient/client's plan of care with home health care staff members, patients and patient's families in a timely manner and provides training to caregivers as appropriate
- Involves patient and family members in developing the plan of care when appropriate and possible
- Performs comprehensive case management when appropriate
- Participates in care conferences as appropriate
- Reports significant change in patient condition or patient status updates to the physician and others participating in the delivery of care
- Implements speech and language pathology interventions to meet patient needs and changing conditions
- Ensures physician orders are accurately transcribed, implemented and evaluated for patient outcome in a timely manner

Qualifications for speech therapist

- Regularly re-evaluates the patient and modifies the plan of care as indicated
- Provides for continuity of care by recording on an ongoing basis, treatment

- Makes recommendations and assists patients in receiving hearing aids and/or assistive listening devices needed to maximize patient function
- Works cooperatively with each member of the health care team
- May be required to perform other assignments from time to time as requested by Leader of Rehabilitative Services
- Experience in Acute hospital, rehab and outpatient is preferred