

Example of Speech Therapist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for a speech therapist. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for speech therapist

- Routinely incorporates patient and family education into patient care
- Identifies patient, patient family and community education needs
- Ensures infection control and safety measures are implemented per policy for patients and communicated to appropriate caregivers and family members in a timely manner
- Utilize skills in patient/client evaluation and treatment, professional consultations to achieve maximum patient/client independence in accordance with individual's functional level and potential
- Communicates with Rehab Program Manager, Patient Care Manager, Clinical Coordinator and appropriate staff in order to plan total patient and family care
- Records reflect the family oriented approach
- Develop and implement treatment and discharge plans based on results, modifying as necessary to meet resident/patient goals
- Provide documentation of patient services according to departmental policies
- Assume case management and patient advocacy roles
- Develops and maintains positive relationships with residents, patients, families, physicians, and staff

Qualifications for speech therapist

- Two years' experience in an acute care or rehabilitation setting, home health preferred

- Certificate of Clinical Competence for Speech-Language Pathology (CCC-SLP)
- Membership in American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA)
- Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) required, Basic Life Support (BLS) from American Heart Association required for facilities