Our company is hiring for a staff software developer. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for staff software developer

- Represent the organization as a prime technical contact for the project and/or program with the software developer group, customer, and management with the wider community through the publishing and presentation of technical papers
- Supervision of a team of SW developers producing flight critical autopilot software, which includes Stability Augmentation Systems (SAS), hold modes, stall protection, airspeed protection, navigation
- Provide support to , a web application that provides the capability to manage information related to foreign targeting of US Army technologies and acquisition programs
- This position enhances and maintains the Subaccounting User Interface
- Will also be responsible for troubleshooting and resolving reported issues
- Required to work with the Development Lead/Architect during the technical analysis, design, and build process
- Required to provide off hours coverage to support production of assigned systems solving system and application problems on need basis
- Required to assist the junior developers in the delivery aspects
- Research the logging/messaging capability of log sources and determine the best method for integrating them
- Collect, analyze, and classify sample log messages and create methods for parsing them

Qualifications for staff software developer

- Should have excellent interpersonal, analytical, presentation and problem solving skills
- 4-6 years of progressive development experience in major development languages including Java/.NET/C#
- Strong programming skills in Java/J2EE/JSF/JSP, MVC design patterns
- Knowledge of security and cryptography design and practices