Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of staff SW engineer. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for staff SW engineer

- Provide support, advice, and mentoring of manufacturing test software engineers
- Provide cross functional support
- Help our clients to achieve their goals by understanding their business problems and then designing and developing required product solutions
- Implementation and management of a multi-tenant content management platform using AEM
- Support API and web based AEM content integration with multiple marketing products
- Provide technology leadership and subject matter consultation for assigned applications to other engineers and stakeholders
- Deliver new user features and enhancements regularly in Agile development
- Integrate with leading technologies and services to deliver the best design/solution
- Be in control of automated build, test and deployment process with enterprise SCM tools
- Champion security to protect users data and remediate vulnerabilities with security experts

Qualifications for staff SW engineer

- Familiarity in web services standards and related technologies (XML, SOAP,) a plus

- Experience with Change Management tools (Jira, ClearQuest)
- Good understanding of source control, versioning, branching, merging
- Big data Hadoop, No SQL database HBASE experience
- Continuous integration using GIT, Stash, Jenkins, Bamboo