

Example of Sterilization Technician Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking to fill the role of sterilization technician. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for sterilization technician

- Operates forklift to remove palletized product from truck, and if floor loaded must remove each carton individually and place on pallets, and moves to un-processed storage
- May move product via forklift to and from various areas of the facility for processing
- Removes samples from customer product and coordinates shipment of samples
- May shrink-wrap palletized finished-product to be returned to the customer
- May contact trucking company and schedule pick-up of finished product
- Using forklift, loads palletized product onto trailer
- Assists with other tasks as assigned by Supervisor
- Compliance with environmental & Quality Systems procedures in your assigned work areas
- Compliance with safety procedures at all times including in areas where hazardous chemicals may be encountered
- Detailed inspections of sterilization records and all related documentation for completeness, accuracy, and to ensure they meet validated parameters prior to releasing product for distribution

Qualifications for sterilization technician

- Must be willing to work established shifts
- Should be proficient using a computer and be able to analyze data in a database/spreadsheet

- Requires bending, twisting, squatting, pushing / pulling motions and lifting up to 50 lbs
- 2 years' experience in High-level disinfection, Endoscopy
- Flexible scope Reprocessing/ High-level disinfection certification or obtain within 12 months of hire