

Example of Stock Supervisor Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for a stock supervisor. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for stock supervisor

- Achieve and maintain inventory accuracy to support 99% P.I
- Achieve and maintain the highest level of employee safety within the work areas
- Participates on projects/new programs when transitioning sources of supply including oversight for the technical, customer and regulatory requirements and drives solutions with internal and external customers
- Review areas for ergonomic concerns, review the tasks to ensure proper tools are being used and keep employees trained on safety and ergonomics
- Maintain a high standard of customer service for Inventory Control
- Be involved in all relevant matters to maintain 100% compliant Q S Regs
- Insure the area's work instructions and training guides support the Q S Regs and are current to the processes the employees are requested to execute
- Utilizes data & Process Excellence (Lean or Six Sigma) to identify Supply Chain improvement opportunities and drive solutions within Distribution Operation (ie
- Researches and provides benchmark (industry, cost, best practice) information for assigned categories
- Helps develop and implement improvement projects and performs special projects and other duties as required

Qualifications for stock supervisor

- Diligently participate in our compliance program-related activities as denoted

- Ability to work in dynamic and complex environment
- Previous experience in retail or other service related industry is preferred
- Works with a high degree of integrity and strong ethics
- Ability to work retail hours, including evenings and weekends