

Example of Store Design Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for a store design. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for store design

- Elevates Designers and the Brand
- Creates a culture of Design within the studio
- Sets goals for the designers and work groups, develops the organization and capability, and models how we work together
- Communicates a design strategy and direction and ensures clear understanding of strategy, priorities and business impact to the team
- Acts as contact for all users on system issues or problems related to contracting and payment of invoices
- Maintains systems configurations, documentation and procedures, such as user setups and interface administration for departmental computing or non-enterprise systems
- Works with IT partners, functional and business systems analysts, customers and vendors on medium sized projects to coordinate system and business process enhancements
- Works with IT partners, functional and business systems analysts, customers and vendors on moderately complex projects to coordinate system and business process enhancements
- Acts as an advocate for international market store design needs by strategically leading the planning, development and implementation of programs that impact the store environment
- Collaborate with affiliate design teams on global execution, guidelines and approvals

-
- Excellent communication skills in both verbal and through drawing
 - Minimum 8 years of retail store design experience- with 3-4 years of supervisory experience
 - Excellent interpersonal and communication skills to work multiple business partners and cross-functional teams
 - Communication and follow up with all stake holders is a must
 - Experience on CAD programs preferably on Macintosh platform, and skilled in VectorWorks and Photoshop
 - Boosts and supports initiatives and changes, and able to lead and act on the set direction