Our growing company is looking to fill the role of strategic buyer. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for strategic buyer

- Accountable for budget, quality, delivery and long-term assurance of supply objectives with the supply base are established and achieved
- Act as a mentor for the NPI Team in all areas of procurement practices
- Optimize overall cost of materials
- Work with Materials Quotation Analysts (if applicable) to quote new and existing materials
- Train, mentor and lead the work direction of support staff (if applicable)
- Make sourcing decisions based on overall cost and benefit including price, duty, freight, flexibility, service, performance, quality, and terms & conditions
- Provide input to determine Quoted Cost to the Customer that is competitive yet maximizes the amount of MPV
- Continuously optimize financial performance by reducing the cost of materials and by limiting unfavorable variances
- Perform supplier market analysis, category analysis, and supply risk analysis, and develop TCO understanding, the map of how sourcing process and channels work within the locally managed category (at market), and identify improvements to be targeted
- Ensure Compliance to Nestlé's business principles, policies, standards and Procurement Policy, Procurement Standardized Model, Nestlé Supplier Code, Best Practices

Qualifications for strategic buyer

- A degree holder with minimum 5 – 7 years' experience in strategic procurement of direct materials in general or packaging materials in specific
- Possess knowledge of Total Cost of Ownership analysis, risk management, responsible sourcing and supplier relations management
- Degree in Business Administration and/or Engineering
- Minimum 2 years of experience in indirect procurement in Materials
- Minimum 2 years of experience in indirect procurement in Facilities