

Example of Strategic Information Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of strategic information. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for strategic information

- Develop strategies for assigned categories that include market, spend, strategic importance, geographic considerations
- Related implementation and support services
- Establish role as a valued business advisor to business units
- Develops and leads team of data experts and liaisons, including managing recruitment, retention, staffing plans, performance development
- Coordinate and assist the corporate team in development and implementation of I.T
- Ensure I.T
- Represent GSE in Corporate I.T
- Oversee the design and implementation of a comprehensive Strategic Information framework for the program
- Design and deploy relevant measures for reviewing performance across program sites within the USAID Boresha Afya regions in line with program and national standards
- Actively work with Results Management Office to ensure that the project meets set targets in accordance with PEPFAR, National and International Standards

Qualifications for strategic information

- Minimum 2 years of experience in indirect procurement in Information Services

- Extensive expertise in relational and dimensional data models, for both structured and unstructured data
- Experience in and understanding of a wide variety of analytical processes (governance, measurement)
- Extensive expertise in banking and financial services is a plus graduate level degree in related technical or business management preferred
- Participate in and contribute to USAID Boresha Afya evaluation (Internal and External) and operational research