Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of supply chain business. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for supply chain business

- Manage work stream for a dedicated Agile software development team
- Managing and prioritizing modification requests for processes and the operational use of warehouse application systems
- Create detailed functional specifications
- Manage site preparation and rollout of WMS to additional facilities
- Work with software engineers on development of reports, forms, alerts, workflow, queries and application processes
- Offer advice, training, expertise and assistance to members of the development team in the design, build, and implementation of technology solutions through participation in user acceptance testing and informal knowledge sharing
- Work with QA lead to develop test use cases and approve test plan
- Interacts proactively with key customers and cross-functional partners on various projects
- Prepares analysis for various finance projects associated with strategic and business planning
- Provides input to consolidated project plans including recommendations and strategies

Qualifications for supply chain business

- Experience with software purchasing and implementation in a corporate

- Demonstrated knowledge of IT organization and processes, experience with Ford a plus
- Experience Driving launch of IT websites and work with project management on deployment of tools and infrastructure for the customer
- Customer focused approach to development of both processes and re-engineering of systems
- Ability to lead a team and grow career opportunities for employees within a matrixed global organization
- Proficient understanding of Order to Cash Processes both BTS (build to stock) & BTO (build to order)