

Example of Supply Chain Director Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking for a supply chain director. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for supply chain director

- Leverage best practices to deliver improved cost, quality, service and delivery
- Drive innovation and continuous improvement of key processes, technology, products, services and experiences to make the complex simple
- Lead change management efforts and drive transformative change where appropriate in support of the strategic and operational objectives
- Develop strategies and plans to continuously improve employee engagement across the organization
- Ensure effective metrics and performance monitoring systems are in place to evaluate delivery of results
- Drive strategic cost optimization efforts through people, process improvements, technology, contractual efficiencies and elimination of wasteful spending
- Supervise and manage the performance of Strategic Sourcing Managers and Senior Supply Chain Managers
- Direct all supply chain activities within the region including strategy development & execution, cost control, safety and people development to ensure that customer requests are met in a timely manner
- Manage 3PL providers and lead product stewardship across the region
- Act as the regional process owner for process improvements and actively promote a culture of continuous improvement

Qualifications for supply chain director

- MBA or Masters in Supply Chain or Operations Management preferred

- Ability to objectively evaluate options/trade-offs and develop executive management-level recommendations
- Develops upstream/downstream strategy and processes to improve supply chain
- Work cross-functionally to gain understanding of demand trends and inbound forecasts
- Ensures supply forecast is shared/received in the format, level of detail, and timing required by all customers and supply chain partners with documented assumptions