Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of system operations. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for system operations

- Improve the resiliency and reduce the overall risk profile of the ANG and Classic architecture
- Software installations following TPO process where required
- Analyzing server costs and drive plan to decrease GTI Indirect costs
- Assist with Projects and refresh programs
- Vendor management experience, negotiation, finance a plus
- Learn standard concepts, practices, and procedures within the JPMC community
- Requires good oral and written communication skills with the ability to communicate technical and non-technical concepts to peers, customers, and management
- Require ability to work independently with minimal supervision and with immediate and broader ADO, AD and GTI teams globally
- Possess good technical problem solving and customer service skills
- Will own the assigned processes from conceptualization through implementation, future measurement and evolution of the process

Qualifications for system operations

- Three or more years of systems administration, architecture design and engineering experience in large enterprise environments supporting Windows Server 2003, 2008, 2012, VMWare, Solaris and AIX
- Three or more years of corporate experience supporting large geographically

- Experience with designing and supporting a multi-tiered infrastructure environment - including application, web, and database
- Experience working with industry-standard change and incident management tools (Peregrine, HP Service Manager)
- Experience of Oracle Rack Product desirable
- Experience in Server virtualization desirable