Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of system project manager. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for system project manager

- Manage vendor in order to successfully deliver the project on time and according to the quality requirements
- Monitor and control each phase and steps of project implementation according to the approved project plan
- Identify and report project issues and project risks to the relevant managers and committees
- Find solutions to mitigate and/or minimise project risks and other issues
- Participate on preparation of proposals
- Lead and manage to successfully deliver the assigned IT Warehouse Management System project or RFC, end-to-end, ideally through applying PMI methodology effectively
- Provide oversight of the scope of work, budget and schedule for the FIS BHS, including change management
- Serve as the technical specialist for oversight of the design, construction, testing, acceptance and turn-over of the BHS within the re-configured and expanded FIS
- Serve as the technical specialist for oversight of the planning and implementation of the phased demolition of the BHS within the existing facility and the provisioning of temporary BHS during construction
- Serve as the technical specialist for facilitation of collaborative communication between all stakeholders for successful delivery of the BHS

Qualifications for system project manager

- Knowledge of end-to-end application monitoring, dashboards and alerting
- Extensive knowledge of ADABAS, Predict, Natural Security, and SAF
- At least 1 year experience in a role as Business Analyst or Application Architect involved in small to medium size project teams
- At least 2 years experience in Managing Application Development, Application Innovation or Complex System Integration Projects
- 5+ years of experience as a Senior IT Project Manager