Our company is looking to fill the role of system project manager. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for system project manager

- Facilitate Supply Chain Materials & Logistics projects progress, processes, risks, and issues, and identify appropriate corrective measures based on accumulated input from team members and stakeholders
- Demonstrate the ability to take a facilitative role in interpreting and applying resolution techniques within a team assignment
- Manage diversity in the workplace
- Demonstrate creativity, imagination, initiative, and good judgment in developing, organizing, and implementing ideas and programs
- Monitor the progress of external dependencies and escalate as appropriate
- Review information provided by project team members and stakeholders to assess its quality and completeness
- Communicate project status, accomplishments, key issues, and risks to project leadership on an established project update frequency, identifying issues requiring resolution at the leadership level
- Assist in development of standard Post-Implementation Review Report to include project metrics and lessons learned
- Assist in vendor management and ensure that transition plans are developed and executed to transfer responsibility to the team(s) responsible for ongoing support
- Provide input, as requested by Supply Chain leadership, on team members' performance for inclusion in performance evaluations

Qualifications for system project manager

- Ability to work as a part of a team and under stress
- Ability to work in a matrix environment & as part of a virtual team – SME's and key partners will be spread across all regions
- Being able to operate in an independent manner, proactively progressing multiple tasks
- Strong issue & risk management and resolution skills
- Proven ability to manage expectations and control/deliver on PMO responsibilities even in an environment of continual change to project scope and requirements