Our growing company is looking to fill the role of systems consultant. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for systems consultant

- Doing this requires an ability to work well with stakeholders to gather the spoken and unspoken needs while maintaining a professional demeanor
- Any discrepancies should be identified and communicated to the Government leads in a timely manner
- The consultant should be able to propose major and minor changes to the cost estimation tool as needed based on the requirements gathered
- May participate in departmental or divisional planning process, Provides subject matter expertise and capabilities to Business and IT Projects
- Ensure the designed specifications achieve business needs and monitor client satisfaction levels
- Previous experience in Wallstreet is preferred
- Manage system changes through change request process & provide status reports to the relevant parties
- Monitor system according to standard operations procedures
- Expected to work during off-peak hours on system activities
- Provide supporting documentation, reports and other information to management

Qualifications for systems consultant

- Committed to working towards chartered status
- DigSilent Power Factory
- IPSA
- Power World