Our growing company is looking for a systems engineer level. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for systems engineer level

- Validates system-of-systems interfaces, system interfaces, and subsystem interfaces by inspection, analysis, test, and demonstration to assure that the system architecture, design and implementation satisfies the intent of the customer requirements
- Validates system-of-systems requirements, system requirements, and subsystem requirements by inspection, analysis, test, and demonstration to assure that the system architecture, design and implementation satisfies the intent of the customer requirements
- Develop, test, and implement system modifications and support procedure
- Prepare documentation describing local modifications and procedures
- Resolve Request Center and Service Desk tickets
- Analyze, debug and correct system software problems
- Provide customer support for application launches
- Participate in proof of concept projects and evaluate software products and make acquisition recommendations to management
- Assist with the development of solution of operational problems
- Ensure performance to SLA -Maintain operational system documentation

Qualifications for systems engineer level

- 2 years of full-time experience supporting client configuration, administration and network access in the Microsoft 7 environment
- Comprehensive knowledge of headliner and overhead systems validation process and pass/fail criteria including key life and material qualifications

- Demonstrated capability of working with designers for in-house designed components
- Extensive knowledge of headliner and overhead system cost drivers from design and manufacturing perspective