

Example of Systems Tech Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking to fill the role of systems tech. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for systems tech

- Partner with business and technical teams to develop requirements based solutions that align with the business's goals and strategies
- Provide Technical Guidance to junior members of team and on engagements with customers, often in a technical leadership role
- Resolve interoperability problems to obtain operations across all platforms and may include Microsoft Active Directory (AD), Novell Directory Services (NDS), SSH, WSUS, hardware and software
- Understand business driven service change requirements
- Liaise with service engineers to understand impact of sourcing strategies and new technologies on the service capability roadmap
- Must have expertise in server hardware components and internals server build, configuration and application support experience
- Primary point of contact for the business partners for all shared services escalations
- Provide System Support for third party products not covered under data center contracted model
- Performs organizational, intermediate, and depot-level maintenance on Universal Ground Control Station to the customer's satisfaction
- This position is for relocation to El Mirage, California which will act as permanent work site when not deployed or traveling in support of program need

Qualifications for systems tech

- Experience utilizing DOORS to define and manage requirements
- Working knowledge Reliability and Maintainability studies, FMEAs and other Systems Engineering tools
- Understands technical deliverables and challenges of developing and certifying products for commercial aircraft
- Working knowledge of requirements management and change control and configuration management
- Five (5) years of experience as a Systems Engineer required