Our growing company is hiring for a team analyst. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for team analyst

- Research customer inquiries and responds timely
- Lead and/or assist with the implementation of corporate wide system initiatives and upgrades
- Support and or participate in User Acceptance Testing, and rollouts of new or enhanced technology and/or processes
- Participate and support various project, as requested
- Oversee and review receivable offsets and adjustments, as needed
- Investigate and process unpost requests into PeopleSoft that are either corrections or reversals of previous cash applications
- Oversee/coordinate the preparation/calculation of the elimination of Intercompany Accounts Receivables
- Prepare journal entries at month-end to reconcile the general ledger intercompany cash accounts
- Under general direction, setting and managing scope for rail projects in Agile methodology
- Defining good quality requirements and specifications for rail products based on stakeholders needs

Qualifications for team analyst

- 4+ years' of accounting or A/R experience with a degree and 6+ years' experience without a degree required
- Experience in an ERP and high transaction processing environment required
- Develop surveys and conduct interviews with industry experts to capture

- Maintain relationships with industry experts and establish new contacts globally
- Strong work ethic and the ability to get things done under tight deadlines
- Proposing solutions to solve problems considering existing systems' capabilities/limitations, stakeholders needs and project constraints