Our company is looking for a technical development. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for technical development

- Estimate, plan and coordinate testing activities ensuring that issues and defects are appropriately identified, documented, tracked and resolved in the relevant systems
- Oversees the determination and validation of business requirements and ensure the definition of solutions to address business, process and system problems and improvements
- Analyse business requirements and ensure that the designed solution meets these requirements
- Oversees the installation and deployment of these architectures
- Validate processes by determining operational testing plans and performance qualification and revising approval process documentation
- White paper product analysis
- Technical handover of development to operations
- Liaison with Core Operational Engineering team with product delivery and handover
- Documentation from end to end with technical product development
- Develop technical testing protocols for development of services

Qualifications for technical development

- Experience leading analytical resources on projects and providing expertise in business development processes is preferred
- Experience with Agile/SCRUM development is preferred

- Strong Experience with databases like ORACLE or SQLServer
- Experience in developing high capacity/high performance applications
- Must be proficient in Microsoft office suite – including PowerPoint, Excel and Word