

Example of Technical Development Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of technical development. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for technical development

- Documents and communicates all required project specific information for DDO functional planning, budgeting, and resourcing activities in partnership with SI and with guidance from DDO management
 - Completes dossier related tasks for assigned programs under direction of DDO SI
 - May support early development programs by attending CMC Team meetings, executing dossier strategy, and preparing submissions and responses with coaching
 - Work closely with East Asia Skills Leaders and office learning representatives to formulate appropriate technical training plans
 - Create and influence knowledge sharing events and onboarding training programs in the developer community
 - Create and maintain new education content and resources for developers and teams
 - Conduct stakeholder meetings for guidance and feedback, and evaluating the effectiveness of these efforts
 - Assist in the instruction and maintenance of content for established programs
 - Resolve problems efficiently, while considering multiple perspectives, groups and inputs
 - Manage and coordinate resources, which may include people, data, processes, and/or financial plans on time, within budget, and up to quality standards
-

- Experience in software architecture, design and development is a must
- Minimum five years of experience as a primary Technical Development Lead on medium to large size application development projects
- Hands-on knowledge of the system development life-cycle, the client area's functions and systems, and application program development technological alternatives
- Experienced with IBM Watson, developing systems that utilize machine learning and natural language processing
- Strong Experience in Database Design and development of SQL code for MS SQL Server and DB2 and database design
- Minimum seven years of experience as primary Technical Development Lead on medium to large size application development projects