

Example of Technical Illustrator Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking for a technical illustrator. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for technical illustrator

- Maintain flexibility during fast paced and rapidly changing project variables
- Create CAD schematics of Completion Tools in support of the Sales & Technical group
- Develop Completion Tool illustrations, graphics, posters, brochures and other marketing collateral in various print and digital formats
- Create 3D models from engineering drawings to produce sequences and animations
- Communicate with applicable SME's throughout project development to include initial project concepts, specifications and final deliverables
- Maintain and update Completion Tools product catalogs, brochures and technical units
- Support Corporate Advertising by updating and maintaining web based Completion Tool information and specifications
- Maintain and update network project databases
- Assists the Technical Documentation and Publication department with preparing drawings from blueprints, designs, electronic prints and mockups, photo-prints by methods and techniques suited to specified reproduction process for final use such as schematics, perspectives, orthographic, or oblique-angle (3D) views in order to depict function, relationship, and assembly sequence of parts and assemblies such as gears, engines, instruments and other mechanical, hydraulic and electrical assemblies
- Shades-in or colors drawings to emphasize details or to eliminate undesired

Qualifications for technical illustrator

- Perform assigned work in a safety conscious manner
- Perform assigned work to specified quality and production standards
- Perform other duties inherently required of the job classification
- Previous experience in production of aircraft illustrations is necessary
- Good command of the English language required
- Customer orientated behavior