Our company is hiring for a technical program manager. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for technical program manager

- Ensure tools address the needs of a broad set of users by conducting detailed user analysis and identifying and scoping out requirements
- Implement and define standards for the creation of internally developed applications that support efficient workflow and process
- Establish project deadlines given project complexity, resources, and dependencies
- Drive projects to completion by keeping stakeholders informed on project status, acquiring user feedback, and holding workers accountable to established deadlines
- Scope technical requirements
- Identify customer needs to define product requirements
- Lead complex, multi-disciplinary product and engineering projects
- Work directly with engineers and analysts
- Business owner of technology advancement - Managing the full life cycle of requirement gathering, design, development, implementation & rollout technology solutions to support business advancement
- Design - Working with Business Users to understand critical business requirements and bottlenecks, conceptualize to-be vision, formulate process & technology solutions

Qualifications for technical program manager

- Project Risk Management - Leads complex/large teams in development of a

- Knowledge of system management tools, products, and industry challenges
- Comfortable working at a highly detailed level with development teams, at a portfolio level with senior executives
- Excellent risk and change management skills
- Hands-on expertise in Linux is a plus
- Technical knowledge and experience in software development