Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of technical senior. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for technical senior

- Work closely with Hiring Managers to understand their needs in order to identify the right talent
- Handle 10-15 job requisitions simultaneously
- Identify recruiting resources to source and certify new talent
- Develop leading-edge methods to attract diverse talent
- Acts as a subject matter expert for complex systems and/or software that ensure our business remains operational
- Assists with the review of applications, systems or technical services to identify risks, optimize opportunities and makes recommendations to leadership based on findings
- Establishes monitoring processes across system(s) to identify risks, trouble shoot problems, and builds or configures solutions
- Reviews, approves and schedules technical changes to the environment
- Assists with the integration of new hardware or software features, including new products or services
- Responsible for ongoing definition and support of service portfolios, catalog items, functionality and change schedules for each of the technical service application and infrastructure teams

Qualifications for technical senior

- Structure, attention to detail, efficiency
- Ability to understand and communicate in technical language

- Strong knowledge of MS Office Suite, HRIS/AT systems and web based applications
- Exposure to RTOS and Tools like ARM RVDS, cross compilers, JTAG debugger