Example of Technology Leader Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking to fill the role of technology leader. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for technology leader

- Play a lead role in the analysis, design, coding, testing, documentation, implementation, and maintenance of information technology solutions for business processes
- Coach the team in new technology introduction, software development lifecycle, code management and good documentation practices
- Participate in the evaluation of product interdependencies with existing offerings, technology trends and ecosystems, frameworks or platforms
- Advise, create and support new technology product /platform LCM (Life Cycle Management) process that focus on on-going improvement updates and upgrades
- Proactively seeks opportunities to enhance efficiency in the build and deploy processes, leveraging automation where possible
- Initiate and drive customer experience surveys
- Prepares documents and facilitates Service Request review meetings
- Support numerous projects to create new functionality for clients through client website and other electronic communications to deliver an ideal online client experience
- Lead the delivery activities within working teams
- Work with Product Owners and Architects to ensure understanding of deliverables to offer input and guidance into solution approaches

Qualifications for technology leader

- Prior experience in team leadership role enjoys learning and applying new technologies, and thrives in a dynamic engineering-oriented work environment

- SQL and database concepts for RDBMS' such as Oracle NoSQL databases
- 5+ years of established track record of defining solutions and implementing large-scale high-quality software applications
- Drive to master emerging technologies and share experience with team members
- Solid foundation in troubleshooting application and data issues