Our growing company is looking to fill the role of testing & commissioning. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for testing & commissioning

- Support system turnover package development
- Prepare project specific components and system checkout, testing, and commissioning procedures
- Execute project specific testing, start-up and commissioning procedures
- Assist in training of plant operations and maintenance personnel
- Finalize system release to operations packages
- Coordinate Craft Labor Support for testing and commissioning
- Manage specialist sub-contractors and suppliers including budgetary controls
- Check that Site Supervisors have completed the Pre-Commissioning checklist/s to ensure that all systems are fully complete
- Witness all systems after commissioning works, including joint venture parties
- Check all documentation has been completed correctly and that copies are available for collation in the O/M's

Qualifications for testing & commissioning

- Able to deputise for the Testing & Commissioning Engineer
- Willing to work flexibly and efficiently in support of the project
- Able to contribute to the management team to provide the development and future direction for the testing group
- Communicating effectively with co-workers, vendors, clients
- Licensed or authorized P
- In depth knowledge of Network Rail Engineering Standards and Group Standards