

Example of Testing & Commissioning Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is hiring for a testing & commissioning. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for testing & commissioning

- Performing risk management and mitigation - evaluating data to prevent project problems and intervening to resolve issues where required
- Managing staff within the project management team - coaching individuals in adopting improved project and portfolio management disciplines, fostering a supporting and agile working within the team
- Widely visible across the rail business, championing the right cultural values to enhance technical assurance
- Ensure that robust processes are in place for the delivery of testing and commissioning works in accordance with standards, industry Best Practice and clients' contractual requirements including impact review of new or revised standards
- Lead and promote innovative approaches to signalling project delivery to improve efficiency and profitability, whilst maintaining or improving management of technical risk
- Development and review of testing and commissioning methodologies for inclusion within bids
- Review of resource plans for testing and commissioning works
- Develop, agree and deliver budget targets within testing and commissioning
- Project management of smaller testing and commissioning works and management of Labour Supply contracts
- Acting as Bid / Project Technical Reviewer for nominated projects

Qualifications for testing & commissioning

- Troubleshoot and repair complex electro-mechanical and electronic systems to identify malfunctions
- Fresh graduates up to 1 year of experience
- Recognized full time degree/diploma in Electrical Engineering
- Must be computer literate (MS Office, MS Projects)
- More than 20 years international experience in similar projects