

Example of Theatre Manager Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for a theatre manager. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for theatre manager

- Lead short and long term business operational planning for portfolio of customers to identify key opportunities to drive beverage quality, cost reduction, category growth
- Establish and maintain assigned global supply base that operates in partnership fashion with HYG to jointly deliver the best technology and quality products for the lowest possible acquisition cost
- Manage supplier involvement and commercial issues to meet project schedule and cost objectives
- Working with the ASM on all paperwork and checklists and creating and maintaining a show book for productions
- Working with the Producer, Director, and ASM during rehearsals to ensure a smooth rehearsal and production process
- Working with the Producer, Director, ASM, Cast, and Crew back stage during all technical and dress rehearsals, and performances to ensure a smooth production
- Calling all cues during all technical and dress rehearsals, and performances
- Perform and coordinate snow and ice removal on perimeter walkways as needed
- Interface with space management and maintenance management software to schedule cleaning tasks
- Ideally of graduate calibre, ideally with a professional marketing qualification

Qualifications for theatre manager

- Desire to work full-time, term position with community services health education theatre programs
- Ability to learn and perform a variety of performer or production staff roles, and ability and willingness to participate in an ensemble process
- Background and training in theater performances is essential
- Ability to work with and perform for audiences of different ages, different socioeconomic backgrounds and social climates, in a manner that captures audience's attention and interest and most effectively communicates health education message
- Ability and willingness to be excellent role model for making health choices