

Example of Therapist Occupational Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking for a therapist occupational. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for therapist occupational

- Assist on occasion with Industrial Service Department clients
- Assume case management and patient advocacy roles as needed
- Provides written interpretations of all evaluations completed and is an active team member in staffings when writing program needs for individual pupils
- Maintains, designs, constructs, or obtains adaptive devices to maintain or to improve independent functioning skills and to improve daily living skills in the educational setting
- Provides liaison service between parents, school personnel, and community agencies to facilitate communication concerning the services provided by Occupational Therapists
- Provides assistance to the parents and to the classroom teacher(s) when adapted or modified equipment is used by an identified individual pupil
- 2500 sign on bonus included!!
- Treatment of Neuro/Ortho populations
- Assists with clinical instruction for physical therapy students, job shadow students, and other student related observations
- Develops and implements an appropriate treatment intervention plan which reflects clinical knowledge, evaluation findings and is updated and modified based on the patient's response and progress

Qualifications for therapist occupational

- Years of experience in a acute care setting is preferred
- Two years of clinical experience as an occupational therapist
- Florida Professional Occupational Therapist license or Provisional OT license required
- AOTA and FOTA memberships highly recommended