

Example of Therapist Occupational Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is hiring for a therapist occupational. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for therapist occupational

- Communicate with team members and outside agencies to identify patient needs and overall condition of patient
- Document all aspects of care and outcomes
- Plan for patient discharge with attention given to home programs, equipment arrangements, and patient/family education
- Easily adapt to changing environments in the health care industry
- Be responsible for maintaining standards of professional and ethical practice in accordance with regulatory agencies and the American Occupational Therapy Association (AOTA)
- The Occupational Therapist demonstrates proficient clinical knowledge and skills in providing and initiating treatment programs for individuals with physical impairments
- Evaluates and develops a treatment plan that is individualized to the patient and revises as needed
- Performs treatment procedures that adhere to standards of practice of the AOTA
- Actively participates in meetings and performance improvement projects of the department
- Supervises occupational therapy students and occupational therapy assistants

Qualifications for therapist occupational

- Requires completion of an accredited Occupational Therapy Program

- 1 year of related work experience in an acute-care setting is preferred, but not required
- Minimum one year experience as an Occupational Therapist working in a clinical setting with adult population, preferably rehabilitation
- Bachelors or Masters Degree from an accredited school of occupational therapy
- Sound judgment in clinical decision making
- Leadership, initiative and ability to assume responsibility