

Example of Trade Compliance Manager Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is hiring for a trade compliance manager. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for trade compliance manager

- Prepare and deliver training on customs and export compliance requirements to stakeholders engaged in transactions related to APL's activities
- Monitor and provide advice on laws and regulations related to APL's customs and export compliance activities
- Provide substantive updates to internal and external stakeholders on potential risks associated with APL's customs and export compliance
- Manage the Company's Customs brokers in all facets required to best serve Company's import and export operations
- Develop and deploy Trade Compliance Control Program on import and export regulatory compliance
- Provide reports on a regular basis on the implementation and progress of compliance efforts as directed or requested
- Support the facilitation of trade documentation, including translations and rulings, and all trade related compliance activities for all A&F business areas
- Work with the Global Trade Compliance LSG to implement companywide initiatives relating to GTC, the Global Trade Compliance Management System (GTCMS) and any automated GTC tools or system implementations
- Develop and implement trade compliance program(s) within the Life Science division based on business risks and process gaps and develop a process for evaluating and prioritizing risks
- Conducts research, determine, and assign accurate tariff classification and declaration data

- 3 + years of leadership experience directing a team or department
- Comprehensive knowledge of US trade compliance regulations and requirements
- Strong knowledge and understanding of Lean Manufacturing and Continuous Improvement principles
- Familiarity and understanding of SAP ERP and Ship ERP
- Ability to lead & develop a diverse team in a fast paced environment
- Ability to identify and resolve complex problems that arise in relations to trade compliance activities