

Example of Traffic Management Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is hiring for a traffic management. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for traffic management

- Advise and assist operational staff and designers in developing non-standard TM layouts and to ensure that all operatives are fully briefed into requirements
- Ensure TM related activities/details are safe for the employees and the customer
- Input into formulating scheme specific management plans in collaboration with NCC/RCC and manage incidents in accordance with the plan
- As a TSCO, undertake TM surveillance checks on TM sites, reviewing all TM related Safe Systems of work, including sub-contractors within area 9 network and report on performance of operational leads
- Full fill the role of TSCO when requested, and to maintain site experience
- Perform other duties and may from time to time be reasonably required
- ATS Subsystem Requirement & Architecture Design
- System Detailed Design
- Software/Data Integration
- Support to I&V

Qualifications for traffic management

- Collaborate effectively with a team of development engineers, QA/Testing, Build, UI/UX and Project Management
- Bachelor's degree in Science, Technology, Mathematics, or Engineering is required with minimum of 12 years' experience in aviation industry with at least 5 years hands-on experience with modeling and simulation tools OR a

- Intake and setup of project requests, including scheduling kickoff meetings, setting up job numbers and folders, creating schedules, developing user journeys and proactively updating partners about status of projects
- Manage team members, calendars and tasks—coordinating milestones and deadlines, assigning and prioritizing jobs and tasks, and keeping all staff on track
- Follow up with the Creative team on job progress and with partners for deadlines/necessary information
- Troubleshoot daily issues with creative and production