Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for an UI / UX. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for UI / UX

- Possess a keen sense for product tradeoffs/delivery of simple products that work across platform
- Participate in customer site visits to interact with customers, management, and users to elicit usability requirements
- Drive the development and communication of design guidelines and patterns, with focus on providing a consistent and intuitive experience across our product portfolio
- Create wireframes, storyboards, and prototypes
- Partner with designers, developers and clients to ensure final products meet design and usability objectives
- Maintain library of design patterns, research findings, and UX best practices
- Conduct stakeholder interviews, surveys, and usability analyses
- Research user behavior through web analytics and own UX focused google analytics initiatives
- Conduct analyses of competitors' product sites and stay abreast of emerging technology trends
- Understand and document business processes and determine business needs

Qualifications for UI / UX

- Possess an understanding of information technology project management best practices

- Familiarity with data viz toolkits (like 3D visualization software, HTML5, JavaScript, Flash, Tableau, D3, Protoviz) is preferred
- Background or interest in mathematical analytics, with strong analytical and logical skills is preferred
- Ability to understand and merge both the technology base and customer business goals
- Ability to travel domestically or internationally as required (up to 10% per year)