Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for an user experience analyst. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for user experience analyst

- An excellent communicator at all levels, having a proven track record of delivering products to market, whilst considering business constraints and stakeholder needs
- Able to work independently as well in a highly collaborative, team-based environment
- Able to think innovatively and develop new design solutions
- Able to effectively prioritise and plan workload to meet deadlines
- Collaborate with internal teams (Accounts, Design, Development, Reporting) throughout Client project life cycle
- Utilize website traffic applications such as Google Analytics, Omniture, and Web Trends, other proprietary tools, to support recommendations as needed
- Develop and track metrics and milestones
- Project support – Help gather, analyze and apply customer insights on digital projects
- Collaborate closely with all teams to design the user experience for online and mobile product offerings and features
- Lead or assist in brainstorming sessions and facilitation workshops

Qualifications for user experience analyst

- Able to work independently being a collaborative team member
- Advanced ability to conduct independent or team-supported discovery with clients, understanding their needs, values, and requirements

- Proven experience with the product development cycle of successfully launched web and mobile applications
- Expert knowledge of Adobe industry-standard applications – Photoshop, Illustrator, Fireworks, Dreamweaver and Acrobat
- Demonstrable experience with responsive design a must