Our growing company is looking for an user interface developer. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for user interface developer

- You will work on concepts and development of crucial technology topics
- Design, develop, and maintain innovative, engaging, and informative user experiences according to spec
- Build high-quality visual UIs for websites, mobile apps, and cloud applications using front-end technologies and integrate them with back-end APIs and data
- Deliver responsive UIs for web, mobile devices and other emerging technologies at a variety of resolutions
- Participate in user experience research projects, design meetings, and testing sessions as required
- Keep up to date on the latest industry trends in design and recommend usage of development and design tools appropriately
- You work in an agile development team according to SCRUM in a LEAN development environment (including agile methodologies like pair programming and continuous integration)
- You work in an agile development team according to SCRUM in a LEAN development environment (including pair programming and continuous integration)
- Your responsibility is covering development and support for the Fiori Launchpad on ABAP, in close collaboration with the team architect
- You ensure great test coverage for your coding and support the team in avoiding any regressions

Qualifications for user interface developer

- At least 5 years of experience with CSS3, HTML5, JavaScript and client-side best practices
- BS degree in Design, HCI/CS or equivalent work experience
- At least 1 year experience in User Interface (UI) design
- At least 2 years experience in Dojo/Ajax, HTML5/CSS3, Node.js, Javascript or equivalent
- At least 2 years experience in Adobe Creative Cloud, particularly Photoshop and Illustrator or equivalent