Our innovative and growing company is looking for an user interface developer. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for user interface developer

- The application will be a part of the world-wide core production system providing finance solutions - high quality of the code and self discipline is the key to success
- Understand, integrate, and support, as necessary, specialized information technologies currently in use, interfacing with HBS personnel in KLS, IT, and HU IT/HL IT, other information professionals, vendors, and contractors
- Build dashboards and data models based on the Nessus product roadmap
- Work in a dynamic team oriented environment using agile methodologies
- Develop new user-facing features for customer portal
- You work in an agile development team according to SCRUM in a LEAN development environment (including pair programming and test-driven development)
- Your responsibility is covering development and support for the Fiori Launchpad on ABAP, especially dealing with the underlying content model covering user roles, catalogs, groups and apps
- Develop with team members various UIs for cloud based web services BT or Wifi connected devices (iOS, Android, Microsoft)
- Prepare and Support early prototyping Apps
- Bring prototype UIs to a product level and support Testing

Qualifications for user interface developer

- In-depth understanding of browser differences, progressive enhancement,

- Ability to translate requirements in to a fully functioning responsive component
- Current enrollment in a Graduate program (MS, PhD) and expected graduation date of December 2016 or May 2017
- At least 1 year experience in user interface development work
- Readiness to travel up to 4 days a week (in New York on weekends – based on project requirements)
- HTML Coding Expertise