Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of value stream manager. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for value stream manager

- Manage the value stream cell, production costs, quality and delivery
- Promotes effective training of employees and works closely with Value Stream Specialist to drive continuous improvement of the content and execution of the training & certification process
- Promotes excellence in housekeeping
- Promotes regular communication between maintenance and production
- Overall responsibility for production safety, delivery, quality, and on-time performance
- Cultural leader for developing and maintaining a daily emphasis on measureable continuous improvement and lean operations
- Supervise and coach Value Stream team (direct staff & support functions) in an accountable manner for meeting Manufacturing Operations goals and objectives
- Hire, develop, and manage employees to achieve a high performing Production staff that is engaged and focused on improvement
- Manage production to meet business goals for revenue, profit, and expenses
- Achieve a high level of value-added work content with respect to customer order fulfillment - use of a daily lean methology that is inclusive of all activities in and affecting production

Qualifications for value stream manager

- Commitment to the future state vision
- Minimum of five years of experience in an operations management or leadership role
- Five (5) plus year's operations management experience
- Minimum of five years of leadership or management experience in an Aerospace or Commercial Airlines Service and Repair environment
- Measure, track, visually communicate, and improve production efficiency and capacity using a daily continuous improvement methodology