

Example of Vehicle Specialist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of vehicle specialist. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for vehicle specialist

- Documenting performance on proprietary software and hardware
- Operate comfortably in a fast-paced environment, managing several communication channels simultaneously via various high- and low-tech mediums
- Work on Waymo's cutting-edge technology and provide engineers with detailed and accurate feedback
- Must pass a number of training checkpoints, both in and out of the vehicle
- Thoroughly explaining our unique process and how our offers are the industry's most competitive, and market sensitive... easy and convenient
- Troubleshooting and servicing of brake systems, ABS, steering, suspension and wheel alignment
- Understanding of electrical principles, semi-conductors, microprocessors and wiring diagrams to diagnosis and repair malfunctions of equipment/vehicles electrical systems
- Possible assist in training lower-level workers in automotive mechanic techniques
- Proper use and disposal of hazardous materials according to established guidelines
- Obtain, complete, or facilitate the completion of various documents (Certificates of Insurance, EEO/AA, Bonds, Request to Subcontract, Certified Payroll)

Qualifications for vehicle specialist

- Must be good under deadline pressures
- 10 key by touch / 35+ WPM preferred
- Current AZ Notary Public Commission, a plus
- Vehicle title experience preferred
- Business degree or relevant work experience