Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of VP, accounting. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for VP, accounting

- Strong experience with accounting research and accounting whitepapers
- Other corporate accounting activities may include among other things assisting in consolidations, SAP, goodwill and intangible accounting, multi-currency global consolidations, stock based compensation, and EPS calculations
- Lead accounting efforts to provide forestry and agriculture operations with information relative to their respective businesses
- In conjunction with lands administration, ensure all land based accounting records are kept up to date (tax parcels, harvest units)
- Oversee annual independent audit and other compliance audits and ensure financial records are maintained in accordance with federal, state and local laws accounting standards set forth by FASB and in compliance with Sabanes-Oxley financial reporting and internal controls
- Accountable for the overall accounting function at Maracay, including reporting, internal controls and policy implementation
- Provides leadership and support to various team members, including finance and accounting staff, sales, starts and closing coordinators, information technology team member(s), and accounts payable function, including ensuring quality data for management reporting
- Treasury and share count reconciliations and accounting for investment in subsidiaries
- Review quarterly analysis (balance sheet and income statement)
- Review and analyze quarterly reporting packages for purposes of external

Qualifications for VP, accounting

- Knowledge in UK, Irish GAAP or IFRS
- Knowledge of tax
- Knowledge of IFRS or French / Italian GAAP
- Technical understanding of the German and/or Swiss regulatory framework
- Strong organizational skills, with the ability to manage many tasks concurrently in a structured manner within a time pressured environment
- Fluent German and English required