

Example of VP, Corporate Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of VP, corporate. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for VP, corporate

- Assess appropriateness of quantitative and qualitative measures of risk for incorporation into legal entity Risk Appetite frameworks
- Further integrate Risk Appetite into strategic business planning at the Firm and line of business levels
- Lead firmwide Risk Appetite communication, marketing and training efforts
- Manage the function in such a way as to achieve economies of scale and to reduce costs in support of company affordability targets
- Fund all international SBU working capital, capital expenditure, and/or acquisition cash needs through equity infusions, intercompany loans, or external debt
- Develop and implement, in conjunction with Corporate Tax, Corporate Accounting, and Corporate Legal, ongoing processes to repatriate excess international cash balances to the US parent (since FY10 over $850 million has been repatriated)
- Leads the Corporate Treasury's activities for acquisitions and divestitures
- Assist with process mapping and risk and control identification sessions held within the business to support development, and periodic confirmation of the adequacy of scope and content of horizontal RCSAs
- Assist with the coordination of Executive Risk Reviews and Bottoms-Up Process Mapping sessions designed to proactively identify, assess and prioritize risks
- Develop and maintain RCSA-related reporting, including status reports and presentations for management

-
- Manage Company CRM on weekly basis
 - Demonstrated various industries knowledge and information
 - Provide compliance advisory to the business on any relevant compliance matters
 - Providing Solution business to major Japanese Global Corporations
 - With minimum of 5 years relevant experience in corporate/commercial banking as a relationship manager
 - For Team Head, minimum 6-8 years of sales and marketing experience and at least 2 years of Team Head experience(Unit Manger is also considered) in corporate/commercial banking environment