

Example of VP, Corporate Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of VP, corporate. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for VP, corporate

- Serves as business liaison between the business units in the portfolio, and Strategic Planning, and Financial Planning and Analysis on reporting financial data to the Program
- Oversees the strategic analytics of the workforce in support of the business units within the portfolio, including ROI analysis, metric-driven reporting and communication strategies for Executive Leadership rollup/summaries of the business units' financial performance
- Responsible for data and narratives for the 990 tax form
- Oversees internal and external audit activities including the annual A133 OMG audit
- Develops a climate that builds employee commitment and reinforces performance and customer service and supports diversity
- Advises and mentors colleagues on key business drivers, trends and initiatives to deepen and broaden business acumen and connection to KP strategies
- Assures protection and preservation of existing assets by establishing appropriate internal controls and risk management practices through proactive ownership of the overall internal control and risk management functions
- Serves as member to other key strategic initiative or program-wide committees that affect financial viability
- Assists in translating assessment results into potential objectives and plans
- Participates in negotiations, due diligence, or integration teams for new

Qualifications for VP, corporate

- Ensure work is performed in an efficient manner, taking opportunities to reduce cost through process improvement and unit costs reduction
- Strong corporate finance/modeling and accounting knowledge, with working experience in a top tier financial institution
- Good knowledge of corporate banking products and services, especially trade and credit management, cross-border servicing requirements
- Degree holder in Business Administration, Finance, Marketing, Economics or related disciplines
- Minimum 10 years of relationship management and sales experience in large Corporate / Commercial Banking
- Equip with M&A and/or project financing experience