

Example of VP, Internal Audit Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is hiring for a VP, internal audit. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for VP, internal audit

- Evaluates company's ability to comply with applicable laws, policies, procedures, best practices, and industry standards
- Writes & present global audit reports of findings and make recommendations for corrective action
- Leads the building of effective teams committed to organizational goals
- Build and sustain excellent relationships at multiple levels in the workplace
- Drive results in the organization and be well-versed in performance management and have the capability to be a strong business partner to the line leaders in the organization
- Hold to well-articulated core values and expected behavior, and holds others to the same standards
- Uses broad functional/technical and business knowledge to anticipate and mitigate business
- This position will require travel of up to 25%
- Develop & maintain effective working relationships with audit constituents including National Executive Team (NET) members (specifically the Chief Information Officer and Chief Compliance and Privacy Officer) and Enterprise Shared Service leadership
- Lead the development of audit strategies that identify synergies between KPIT, clinical technology, end user services, buy to pay operations, travel and expense operations, vendor risk management, and business managed technology

Qualifications for VP, internal audit

- Experience in assessing an organization's risk profile and developing strategies to mitigate those risks
- Demonstrated knowledge of generally accepted accounting and audit principles
- Knowledge of local, state and federal laws and regulations applicable to non-profit organizations
- Superior verbal and written communication and interpersonal skills, to interface with all levels of staff and leadership including ability to write with simplicity and clarity
- Excellent presentation and training skills including the ability to engage audiences with credibility.Â
- Professional, self-motivated, results oriented and approachable.Â