

Example of VP, Product Development Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a VP, product development. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for VP, product development

- Regularly shop competitors to keep abreast of trends
- Provide direction and clarify objectives
- Work closely with clients to gather feedback on the product offering and identify functionality gap and commercial opportunities
- Work with Prime Services management to ensure product offering is in step with overall business strategy
- Understand the hedge fund competitive landscape to innovate and drive our products forward to be best in class
- Work with clients and 3rd party vendors to understand the development of their own products and help to integrate with GS
- Pitch products persuasively and comprehensively to drive client adoption
- Partner with various teams including Sales, Client Services, Technology, Operations, Legal and Compliance to shape product offering
- Project management, planning, organizing and tracking of Technology developments at a high-level
- Product Development SME for Tax

Qualifications for VP, product development

- Experience outside of wholesale financial services, including outside of broad financial services
- Participate in and support the II Planning process and subsequent

- Manage and control ongoing change request and status reporting processes
- Ensure strong financial disciplines, standardized tracking and clear financial reporting are maintained within the team
- Produce various reporting and Work closely with the Finance group and act as PMO point person with regard to answering financial queries and resolving issues