

Example of Warehouse Selector Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for a warehouse selector. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for warehouse selector

- Tracks time spent on assignments for productivity reporting on a daily basis
- Follow proper selection procedures as established by the company
- Lift & carry cases of up to 60 lbs from pick slots and place them onto pallets
- Shrink-wrap and stage completed pallets of selected products in proper shipping lanes for loading
- Consolidates Out-bound loads to maximize cube efficiency and in-transit safety
- Maintains inventory location records as required
- Must have the ability to count
- Lift and carry cases of up to 100 lbs
- Communicate with supervisors regarding safety, equipment, damaged goods, and any problems or issues that may arise
- Work with a team of associates to unload, stack, verify and put away pallets of incoming freight, using a variety of powered industrial equipment in accordance with company policy and safety guidelines

Qualifications for warehouse selector

- Must be proficient in latest software and technology
- Pass pre-employment testing (Drug Screening, Background Check, and Physical Abilities Test)
- Considerable strength and endurance are required to safely and successfully perform these jobs

- Remember we said, "hard work" – you might lift 25-100 pounds per case as part of this job throughout the duration of the shift!
- Successfully pass our hair drug screen and background check requirements (criminal background check, yes – we do not check your credit score)