

Example of Web Content Editor Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking for a web content editor. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for web content editor

- Solve problems of modest scope using good judgment and the appropriately selected methods and techniques
- Respond to taskings to identify and print products released to specific customer sets or products on specific topics
- In need of two individuals to assist in the migration of content from our current Content Management System to what will be our NEW CMS
- It would be a plus for these individuals to have a fundamental understanding of CSS, Javascript, and browser versioning strategies as well
- Ability to track and complete multiple projects on time
- Keep day-to-day website content accurate and up-to-date for venues, offers, events, programs
- Generate ad hoc and scheduled reports with KPI's and other supporting metrics
- Collaborate with content owners to populate corporate websites
- Work with content writers to ensure brand consistency
- Add and remove users to content management system platforms

Qualifications for web content editor

- Have a good command of written English and a sharp eye for detail
- A two (2) year college degree or equivalent work experience in Web Design, Computer Information Systems, Communications, Media or Business
- A minimum of two (2) years of experience with Microsoft applications (Word, Excel, PowerPoint)

- Cross cultural collaboration