

Example of Welding Technician Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of welding technician. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for welding technician

- Performs the mechanical and basic electrical and basic instrument and control troubleshooting, maintaining, repairing, cleaning, inspecting and constructing of equipment and systems for the generation facility
- Performs various welding activities
- Work performed under the supervision of the hourly supervisor, as assigned
- Maintains all automatic welding equipment operational in production shops, assists Welding Engineer in performance of duties
- Must be able to operation and qualify on all automatic welding equipment
- May be responsible for the direction of hourly classifications utilized in maintenance and repair of equipment
- This position is on 3rd shift
- High School graduate, or equivalent, formal welding technical education (Trade School for example) is a plus but not mandatory
- Candidate should be proficient with AGTA welding and have a good working knowledge of SMAW, GMAW (automatic and semi-automatic), some SAW knowledge is a plus
- Experience with robotic welding is a plus but not mandatory

Qualifications for welding technician

- Ability to perform the physical duties of the position
- Associates degree in welding through a certified welding program or 7+ years experience with high school diploma

- Must be legally authorized to work in the United States without requiring sponsorship
- Knowledgeable in blueprint reading of all weld symbols, ability to interpret GD&T preferred
- Program welding robots using teach mode and offline software, Fanuc robotic and Weldpro experience highly preferred