

Example of Work Manager Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of work manager. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for work manager

- Act as Area single point of contact for all At Work initiatives, owning At Work projects and programs
- Manage Area strategic planning, ensuring leadership vetting and support
- Provide support and suggestions on how to influence sales execution
- Liaison between the field and HQ
- Drive cross functional alignment and collaboration
- Manage assigned Area Communications including weekly field communications, strategic updates to Area leaders and attending meetings
- Identify process improvement opportunities and create plan of action to improve efficiencies and effectiveness across At Work channel
- Responsible for developing multiyear strategies that deliver financial results
- Analyze the competition to understand trends, pricing opportunities, marketing tactics, and implement best in class customer's experience solutions
- Attend relevant trade shows and events to learn market trends, gather product information, select merchandise and establish business relationships with viable partners

Qualifications for work manager

- High School Diploma or GED with 12+ years field nuclear experience in engineering, operations, work planning and/or maintenance OR
- Associates degree with 10+ years field nuclear experience in engineering, operations, work planning and/or maintenance OR

- Ability to read/understand various electrical and mechanical technical documents (ex
- An in-depth knowledge of DOE, Federal, and State regulations existing Engineering and Quality Assurances Standards and procedures
- Comprehensive understanding of Site work control (work practices), radiological controls, quality assurance, configuration management, material controls and procedures for both maintenance and operations related areas