

Example of Wound Care Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for a wound care. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for wound care

- Performs a range of clerical duties that support the
- Operations of the unit
- Answers telephone, transferring calls, determining when
- Promote and deliver coordinated wound, ostomy and continence services per certification held
- Promote comprehensive care to WOC patients through coordination of medical, agency and community resources
- Assist patients with follow-up care needs after Agency discharge
- Collaborate with all other healthcare team members toward the best outcomes for the patient and the ministry
- Assess POC of ostomy patients and promote nursing care direct toward self-care and psychosocial rehabilitation
- Evaluate the effectiveness of care provided and revises care plan as necessary
- Serve as a consultant to other nurses and healthcare professionals in managing highly complex patient care problems

Qualifications for wound care

- Registered Nurse, graduate from an approved School of Nursing
- Minimum of 2 years med-surg experience
- Recent experience in Wound Care Nursing preferred
- Minimum One Year experience in wound care

- Recognize alterations in the patient's healing process and verbalize the changes to the RN or the physician